MARINE ROOM MANAGER NAMED PRESIDENT OF RESTAURANT ASSOCIATION

La Jolla, Calif. (September 30, 2016) – The Marine Room, a San Diego landmark and award-winning coastal treasure for 75 years, is pleased to announce its’ manager, Matt Caponi, has been named President of the San Diego Chapter of the California Restaurant Association.

Since 1906, the California Restaurant Association has been helping restaurants create a better climate for their businesses through advocacy, education and support for its members. Mr. Caponi has been an active member since 2010, and is excited about being able to represent the local chapter in their efforts to sustain a healthy and successful industry.

With nearly 20 years of experience in the hospitality industry, Caponi joined The Marine Room after he moved from Boston where he worked in several restaurants throughout college. He relocated to San Diego as Supervisor at the Hilton Harbor Island’s Sierra Pacific restaurant. He has completed and passed his Level 1 certification from the Court of Master Sommeliers and plans to take the Certified Sommelier exam.

For more than nine years Caponi has been instrumental in upholding the rich traditions of The Marine Room as a San Diego landmark while introducing exciting new programs and events, including the popular Cooking Class and Dinner series. Also home to Executive Chef Bernard Guillas and Chef de Cuisine Ron Oliver, Caponi collaborates with the team to create special events where diners can interact and learn from these award-winning chefs. Together, The Marine Room continues to receive numerous awards, including “Most Romantic,” “Best Dining with a View” and “Best Restaurant to Celebrate a Special Occasion.”

The Marine Room is located at 2000 Spindrift Drive in La Jolla and is owned and operated by the La Jolla Beach & Tennis Club, Inc. For more information and reservations, call 858.459.7222, or visit www.MarineRoom.com.
